

"National Emblem March" played by Pryor's Band

Pryor and his musicians render Bagley's celebrated march with inspiring dash and great skill. The ingenious mingling of patriotic melodies and the stirring swing of the completed effect have made it one of the two or three most popular marches ever written. The "Garde du Corps March," a recent composition by R. B. Hall, the famous bandmaster who died a short time ago, is the second number on this sure-to-be-popular Pryor record.

HUKRIEDE CHOSEN AS HEAD OF G. O. P. COMMITTEE AGAIN

Jefferson City, Aug. 22.—T. W. Hukriede, of Warrenton, was re-elected chairman of the Republican state committee here late this afternoon after the name of Jephtha Howe of St. Louis, choice of Henry Lamm, nominee for governor, had been withdrawn. Mr. Hukriede was the choice of Walter Dickey, nominee for United States senator.

The state candidates here this afternoon took a preferential vote on the state chairmanship after the name of Mr. Howe had been withdrawn. The vote resulted as follows:

Hukriede, 17; John H. Bothwell, Sedalia, 14; Charles D. Morris, St. Joseph, 5; Tom Marks, Kansas City, 1. The result of the vote was submitted to the state committee.

The name of Mr. Howe was withdrawn by Otto Stifel of St. Louis, who also asked that the name of Mr. Hukriede be withdrawn. This request was not granted.

After the election of Hukriede Mr. Stifel resigned from the state committee with the explanation that he could not serve if a chairman was chosen in opposition to the wishes of Mr. Lamm.

The Republican convention, composed of state, congressional and of legislative candidates and the state committee, will meet Wednesday to draft a platform. Under the law this platform must be completed by tomorrow night.

The meeting of the convention was delayed today because the state committee was late in finishing its work.

Alex Felwick of Freistatt was in town Wednesday.

SPLENDID TIME AT WALDENSIAN CHURCH

Last Sunday the members of the Verona Presbyterian church held joint service with the members of the Waldensian church, south of Monett. Some came over in cars, others on the morning train, and were met by cars and taken to the church. Communion service was held, after which everybody retired to the church basement, where a fine basket dinner was given. The afternoon was spent in visiting and getting acquainted.

Before the departure of the Verona guests Rey, Woods and his genial wife served ice-cold watermelon, the same being of their own raising, and they are to be complimented on the size and quality of these. Considering the drought, the melons are exceptionally fine, and they were enjoyed and appreciated by all present. Rev. Koontz of Monett, accompanied by two ladies, drove to the parsonage after the watermelon feast, but Rev. Woods found a nice melon for Rev. Koontz to take back with him.

The Christian Endeavor service was held in the evening and the report of the delegates to the Hollister convention was given, which was very interesting. It appears though that no fish was to be had by some of the delegates; others were more lucky. Taking it all in all, a very pleasant day was spent. —One Present.

VIOLA ALLEN SWEEPS PUBLIC OFF ITS FEET

Have you seen Viola Allen in "The White Sister?" This is what everyone now is asking his neighbor.

When a play makes such a success that it is the first topic of conversation that enters the mind when two friends meet, you may know it has some genuine attraction—that it is irresistible.

Every once in a long time there is a play that not only succeeds in the ordinary way, but has some great fundamental human element that sweeps the public off its feet.

That is what "The White Sister," Essanay's six-act photoplay, written by F. Marion Crawford, has done. It is the talk of the hour. Critics who saw the play before its release predicted a wonderful run. (It has surpassed all expectations. It is the rage; it is the fad of the day. "The White Sister" will be shown at the Bijou theatre next Monday.
